M. A. TYSON AND SISTERS' SEMINARY FOR YOUNG LADIES,

On F street, between 12th and 13th.

THE DUTIES of this long-established Institution will be resumed on Monday, the 15th of September, and it is desirable that the pupils should be punctual in their attendance on that day, for an early organization of the different classes. Parents and guardians who wish to enter their daughters are respectfully invited to do so previous to the opening.

The location of this Institution is in the most healthy part of the city, the water excellent, the air pure, and the play-grounds sufficiently large to permit the pupils to use healthful exercise. The several apartments are spacious and well ventilated, and the health, convenience and comfort of the pupils at all times regarded.

All apparatus necessary for illustrating the various branches of natural science is furnished, and the services of a professed French teacher secured.

For references, &c., circulars may be obtained at the book stores of R. Farnham, Taylor & Maury, or at the Saminary. After the first of September, the Principals will take great pleasure in showing those wishing to enter scholars through their establishment.

BETTER THAN GOLD!

PORTSMOUTH, July 9, 1851.

MR. J. E. BOUSH—Dear Sir: I feel it a duty to make known the benefit I have derived from Dr. Hampton's VEGETABLE TINCTURE. For a number of years I suffered from disease, but to a greater degree for the last three years. One of the forms of my disease was dyspersia. From this dreadful malady I suffered to such an extent that life was really a burden. The attack of it on me was different to that on any other person of whom I have heard; at times it was like the palpitation of the heart; there was a constant thumping and beating without intermission about the region of my heart, chest, and stomach; some of the attacks would last for weeks; my stomach was much distended, with constant pain, great weakness, and constitution of the bowels. I could not eat the most simple food without pain. I also suffered greatly from disease of the kidneys, with constant pain in the back, that I could walk only with great difficulty. I tried nearly sil of the most celebrated patent medicines of the day, but found no relief. I had also the best medical attendance. One of my physicians frankly told me it was of no use for me to be paying him for advice, as he could do me no good. I gave up almost in despair, and thought my disease certainly incurable.

At this juncture I heard of Hampton's Vegetable Tincture. I refused to give it a trial, although persuaded by my friends, until my son purchased a few bottles, and a most happy effect on me; my confidence increased, and after taking three bottles, my dyspepsia, or disease of the stomach, was nearly if not entirely cured. I now feel myself a new man, and in better health than for years. I am certain the cure in my case was made by this Hampton's Vegetable Tincture alone. Since my cure I have recommended the tincture to a number of my friends, who have also been relieved by it. Some of the cures have been as rapid and equally wonderful as mine.

I present my respects to Messrs. Mortimer & Mowbray, the proprietors of this valuable medicine, and BETTER THAN GOLD!

The above is extracted from a letter from a gentleman sixty years of age, and of high character. He says: "I have given but a faint idea of my sufferings; I feel inadequate to the task." We also have received, in the last few days, letters from two of our most worthy and well-known citizens, giving two remarkable cures of spinal disease. But yesterday one of the oldest merchants reported that he was cured of neuralgia of the head, of years standing, and so bad that his teeth fell out from its effects. Call and see letters. Was there ever so many cures, wonderful cures, made by any other medicine. All we ask of the afflicted is that they try Hampton's Vegetable Tincture, the great purifier of the blood and cure for all chronic diseases, as dyspepsia, rheumatism, scrofula, and all complaints of the stomach, bowels, &c.

native town, Middlebury, Vt., where he attended the annual commencement of the Middlebury college. The wanderer, who had been absent more than twenty years, was recognised by many of the old citizens. The hotel was surrounded by a large crowd, and the Judge was compelled to give them a speech-a thing he can always do. After thanking them for the kind and hospitable reception which he received, he said:

"This was his first return to his native State, after many years' absence, and he had hardly anticipated that he should be recognised, or that his former townsmen should have kept trace of the wanderer. Mr. D. had never en joyed the good fortune of being a graduate of the noble institution whose anniversary they were now celebrating; but he had, nevertheless taken some youthful lessons in our town, at an institution somewhat less renowhed, but which he remembered, nevertheless, with affection, and the head of it with gratitude. His first visit, after paying due homage to the memory of Silas Wright, had been to the old cabinetshop of Mr. Nahum Parker, where, twenty three years ago, he had been an apprentice."

[Here some one interrupted the speaker by the exclamation, "Three cheers for Douglas, the cabinet-maker." The three cheers were accordingly given, and made the welkin ring. Another voice—" We will soon have him again Another voice—"We will soon have him again at work at his old trade." Here the outburs of sentiment was tremendous. Judge D. could not resist it. "If you do," he cried, "I will try to make the glue stick, and you may rely that the principle material will be hickory

A MELANCHOLY SIGHT .- Dr. Reid, a traveller through the highlands of Peru, is said to have found lately, in the desert of Alacame, the dried remains of an assemblage of human beings, five or six hundred in number-men, women, and children-seated in a semi-circle as when alive, staring into the burning waste be-fore them; they had not been buried; life had not departed before they thus sat around, but hope was gone. The Spanish invader was at hand, and no escape being left they had come hither to die. They still sat immovable in that dreary desert. Dried like mummies by the effect of the hot air, they still keep their position, sitting up as in solemn council, while over that dread Areopagus silence broods everlastingly.

THLL ANOTHER of our most talented and highly respectable citizens speaks for HAMPION'S VEGETABLE TINCTURE:

BALTIMORE, July 18, 1851.

Messrs. Mortimer & Mowbray:—Gentlemen: My daughter having been afflicted for more than a year with the spinal disease, and having tried every remedy that was prescribed by some of our best physicians, without affording her any apparent relief, i fortunately was advised by a friend to try a bottle of "Dr. Hampton's Vegetable Tincture," which relieved her of her pain in less than iwenty-four hours. I am pleased to say that since she took it she has been free from pain, and she is gradually gaining strength, which I attribute entirely to the restore active properties of this medicine. I believe if it were moral of such diseases incident to the human family than what is usually prescribed.

THE CHRISTIAN STATESMAN. A WEEKLY NEWSPAPER.

The undersigned propose to publish, in the City of Washington, a weekly newspaper, bearing the above title, and dedicated to a sound morality in Politics, to the Union of the States, to the cause of African Colonization and Civilization, and to all topics of a high and general interest to their country and mankind. They will endeavor to impress upon the People and Government of the United States and of the several States the importance of colonizing in Africa, with their own consent, the free people of color of this country, and such as may become free. They will communicate to the public all important information they may obtain in regard to the Geography. Exploration, Resources, Commerce and Population of Africa; the state of the Slave Trade, and the measures best adapted for its suppression; and will enforce the duty of union among all Christian denominations in efforts to diffuse the knowledge of our Arts, Liberty, and Christianity, among the barbarous people of that Continent.

They will aim to render the journal an instructive and useful Family Newspaper, and to secure for its columns, as the public favor shall enable them, contributions, literary and scientific, of decided merit.

The CRISTIAN SARIESMAN will be of the size of the Hone Journal on National Eru, and exceed in size the Intelligences or the Union of this city; and, with but few advertisements, will be nearly filled with matter designed to be of interest to its readers.

It will be printed with new type, on fine white paper, and, in mechanical execution, be equal to the best newspapers in the country. to Literature and General Intelligence.

cisco by the mail steamers, and be delivered in advance of the mail.

We beg to announce to the public that we have entered into connexion with the heaviest transportation house on the 1sthmus, who are bound to us to transport our goods from Chagres to Panama, in advance of all other expresses, and having made arrangements with the U. S. Mail and all other steamers on the Pacific, for the carriage of our goods, we are prepared to guarantee their delivery in San Francisco within a specified time.

In addition to the superior qualities of the line, for the transaction of Merchandise, its manifest advantages over the U. S. Mail and all other competitors, in the transportation of letters and parcels between the Pacific and Atlantic States, are well known and already generally appreciated by the public. The value of a nercantile letter, delivered by us three or four days in advance of all other competition, being properly estimated.

We have also established agendes in GUAYAQUIL, CALLAO, and VALPARAISO, for which ports, and other cities on the South American coast, we are prepared to receive LETTERS and PARCELS, which will be promptly despatched to their destination by our agent in Panama.

The mail for South America is made up but once a mouth.

BRITISH QUARTERLY REVIEWS.

OWING to the late revolutions and counter-revolutions among the navious of Europe, which have followed each other in such quick succession, and of which "the end is not yet," the leading periodicals of Great Britain have become invested with a degree of interest hitherto unknown. They occupy a middle ground between the hasty, disjointed, and necessarily imperfect records of the newspapers, and the elaborate and ponderous treaties to be furnished by the historian at a future day. Whoever reads these periodicals obtains a correct and connected account of all the important political events of the Old World, as they occur, and learns the various conclusions drawn from them by the leading spirits of the age. The American publishers therefore deem it proper to call renewed attention to the works they publish, and the very low prices at which they are offered to subscribers. The following is their list, viz:

The Westminster Review, and Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazinz.

In these periodicals are contained the views, moderately though clearly and firmly expressed, of the three greatest parties in England—Tory, Whig, and Radical; "Blackwood" and the "London Quarterly" are Tory, the "Edinburgh Review" Whig, and the "Westminster Review" Liberal. The "North British Review" owes its establishment to the last great ecclesiastical movement in Scotland, and is not ultra in its views on any one of the grand departments of human knowledge. It was originally edited by Dr. Chalmers, and now, since his death, is conducted by Dr. Chalmers, and now, since his death, is conducted by this son-in-law, Dr. Hanna, associated with Sir David Brewster. Its literary character is of the very highest order. The "Westminster," though reprinted under tha title only, is published in England under the title of the "Foreign Quarterly and Westminster," it being in fact a under separate titles. It has, therefore, the advantage, by this combination, of uniting in one work the best feature of both, as heretofore issued.

The above Periodicals are reprinted in New York, immediately on their arrival by the British steamers, in a besutiful clear type, on fine white paper, and are faithful coples of the originals—Blackwood's Magazine being an exact fac sinule of the Edinburgh edition.
